

PERSONAL POINTS.

If you have friends visiting you, or if you are going there on a visit, please drop us a note to that effect.

C. A. Webster of Cynthiana was in the city last night.

Miss Sallie S. Wood is visiting Miss Nora Manker at Ripley.

W. H. Phipps of Paulding, O., was registered at the Central yesterday.

D. M. Reveal, ex-Sheriff of Robertson county was in the city yesterday.

Mrs. Edwin L. Fulk of Milton, W. Va., is visiting her brother, S. B. Clum.

Dr. Harry S. Wood spent yesterday with his parents, Dr. and Mrs. George T. Wood.

Captain James K. Lloyd swooped down on his many Maysville friends yesterday.

Chief of Police Sanford of Covington called on THE LEXTER while in the city yesterday.

O peerless Nipper Hunk!
Such feet and legs shakin'
No horse e'er bore;
Ten thousand trotting cranks
Throw up their hats with thanks
For thy zoom.

—Philadelphia Record.

The carboys gave a gentle start;
They stopped by arrow pointed,
And gaily spoke the driver smart;
"He didn't know 'twas loaded!"

—Washington Star.

FRESH OYSTERS at George H. Heiser's.

THOMAS KILGORE had his leg badly injured at the Manchester Plating Mill.

The Public Schools of Manchester will celebrate Columbus Day, October 21st.

F. C. MEANS and Miss Ruby Ringo, prominent young people of Ashland were married.

THOMAS W. DAVIS, a ten-year-old boy, was thrown from a mule at LaGrange and instantly killed.

R. H. WILLS fell from the roof of a barn in Wilson's Bottom and dislocated his shoulder.

DR. W. R. S. CONNELL fell from a roof in Manchester and broke his arm and dislocated his shoulder.

The Republicans of Covington will hold a big mass meeting at Central Garden Saturday night.

A little daughter of Frank Hendricks fell into a kettle of apple butter in Bath county and died from the burns.

POSTMASTER STEPHENS OF GREENUP has been inspecting the Postoffice in Greenup county for the Government.

ABRAHAM C. HAWK of Lewisburg and Miss Mattie F. Case of Summit Station will be married at the residence of the bride on October 20th.

The latest information from Miss Jennie Frazee at Colorado Springs is that she is somewhat improved, and that the conditions are encouraging.

Called meeting of Joseph Heiser Post No. 13, G. A. R., this evening. A full attendance desired. JOHN V. DAY, Commander.

Miss ANKELIA I. McDOWELL, niece of Congressman of Agriculture Nicholas McDowell, was married at Danville to Hon. John M. Brooks, Mayor of Middleburg.

JOHN GLENN, a saloon-keeper of Cincinnati, who had been drinking heavily, drowned himself at that place. He is now staggering through the gold-paved streets of Paradise.

WILLIAM F. HARDY, sent to the Ohio Penitentiary from Adams county sixteen years ago for killing his stepfather, and recently pardoned, is now in trouble for forging his mother's name to a check, for $5.00.

JOHN B. LEWIS, a former resident of this county, says The Frederick Star, now living at Oklahoma, sent us a sweet potato last week from that place which weighed 61 pounds. It was as large as a man's head.

CAPTAIN SANFORD of Covington came up yesterday and took Clarence Oldham, who was captured here Sunday by the police, to that place where he is wanted for stealing a watch, suit of clothes and other articles of less value.

Miss CLARA GRIMMER, for a long time the talented correspondent of The Register, who was married Tuesday at Manchester to Dr. E. M. Foster. The Doctor is to be congratulated on having secured a life-partner of such captivating qualities of mind and manner.

The proceedings entered by the Government two years ago against Distillers Mahoney and Howard of Larue county for alleged violation of the Internal Revenue laws, has been settled. The United States Court of Appeals having dismissed the appeal taken by District Attorney Jolly.

DAILY MAYSVILLE REGISTER

MAYSVILLE, KY., FRIDAY, OCTOBER 7, 1902. ONE CENT.

OUR GOOD CITY DADS.

MONTHLY MEETING OF MAYSVILLE'S MUNICIPAL MANAGERS.

Report of Various Committees on Business Finished and Unfinished—Separate Registration for the City Election Demanded—Necessary and Officers Appointed.

The City Council met in regular session last night with President W. H. Cox presiding. All members were present except Mr. Schroeder.

The following reports of city officers were presented and received:

FINES ASSESSED BY MAYOR.
Fines assessed by Mayor..... $830.01
Collections by Mayor..... 42.07
Net received from wharves..... 35.17

Below we give an abstract of the Treasurer's report.

GENERAL FUND.
Cash balance last month..... $1,000.72
Receipts during month..... 1,352.39
Total..... $2,353.11
Expenditures..... 1,061.05
Leaving balance..... $1,292.06

WHITE SCHOOL FUND.
Cash balance last month..... $1,167.90
Receipts during month..... 20.39
Total..... $1,188.29
Expenditures..... 1,188.29
Leaving overdraw..... $0.00

COLORADO SCHOOL FUND.
Cash balance last month..... $134.07
Receipts during month..... 87.00
Total..... $221.07
Expenditures..... 24.00
Leaving overdraw..... $197.07

Claims were presented against the city and orders drawn as follows:

Alms and Alms-house..... $109.75
Internal Improvements..... 70.01
Police..... 15.00
City Prison..... 15.00
Gas and electric..... 42.07
Miscellaneous..... 35.17
City Physician..... 12.75
Sanitary account..... 35.17
Printing..... 2.00
City Engineer..... 2.00
Total..... $230.00

The unfinished business was disposed of as follows:

Water Mains on Sixth Street—Committee having matter in charge was authorized to pay the water company $25 extra, providing the work is completed in the month of October.

Internal Improvement Committee, in regard to the opening of Chester and Vine streets, was granted further time.

Same committee, in regard to Market street fill, reported finished.

Same committee, in regard to unopened streets and alleys, was granted further time.

Same committee, in regard to gutter on Union and Second streets, was granted further time.

Same committee, in regard to crossing at Third and Market streets, reported progress and was granted further time.

Same committee, in regard to crossing at Wall and Second streets, reported finished.

Same committee, in regard to repairs on Wall street, between Second and Third streets, reported finished.

Same committee, in regard to sewer at January street, reported finished.

The Health Committee reported the city cleaned as thoroughly as in their power, and this matter was stricken from the minutes. Attention was called to the opening of sewer, which runs down Bridge street, at a point in rear of the premises of W. W. Ball. The opening was said to be considerably above low water mark and a disagreeable and sickening odor arises from the fifth accumulated along the river bank. Mr. Ball was present and made a statement to the Council in regard to it. The matter, after considerable discussion, was referred to the Committee on Health, asking that it be thought would temporarily abate the nuisance.

Mr. Wood also called attention to the condition of the pond hole in the angle formed by Second street extension and Bridge street, which he said was the worst place in the city as a disease breeder. This was also referred to the Health Committee.

Mr. Hicks called attention to the cesspool near Front and Market. This also went to the Health Committee for them to ponder over.

STEAMBOAT MATTERS.

WHAT IS GOING ON ALONG THE BEAUTIFUL OHIO RIVER.

Driftwood Gathered on Shore and Stream by The Ledger's Weather-Beaten Old War and Piled Up Ready For Use.

The wife of Captain Martin Briggs died at Pittsburgh. She had been an invalid some time.

The drouth continues all over the country and the Ohio grows smaller and beautifully less.

The Woodruff left Evansville yesterday morning on her way down the Ohio, pulling snags and removing wrecks.

There are from 8,000,000 to 10,000,000 bushels of coal loaded at Pittsburgh and ready to leave on the first good rise.

Several days ago a man giving his name as J. W. Sparks, and claiming Silverbrook, Ky., as his place of abode, came to this city, saying he was a piano tuner.

He stopped at a boarding-house, and stated that he was financially embarrassed, but would receive some money in a few days and would make everything right.

He was daily expecting his trunk, which judging from the manner in which he spoke of it, was as large as a box-car, but the trunk never came.

He left very suddenly without any ceremony whatever, very cleverly beating the proprietor of the house where he was stopping, as well as everyone else he could. He is a gilded dead beat and no earthly good.

The Committee on Ways and Means was authorized to borrow $3,000.

The matter of having another registration for the city election was brought up and after some discussion it was deemed advisable to have a separate registration.

The following officers of registration were appointed:

First Ward—Clerk, W. B. Rudy; Sheriff, R. R. Frost; Judges, Joseph Lowry, Fred Schatzman. Place of registration, Jacob Outen's shop.

Second Ward—Clerk, W. R. Warden; Sheriff, J. H. Rees; Judges, J. S. Redmond and W. N. Howe. Place of registration, Mayor's office.

Third Ward—Clerk, W. R. Archdeacon; Sheriff, G. S. Hancok; Judges, John Shea and J. D. Gunn. Place of registration, O. Fitzgerald's shop.

Fourth Ward—Clerk, W. W. Newell; Sheriff, William Lally; Judges, John Moore and S. R. Powell. Place of registration, S. R. Powell's shop.

Fifth Ward—Clerk, B. L. Pearce; Sheriff, N. S. Wood; Judges, George Burrows and O. E. Collins. Place of registration, Collins & Rudy's office.

Sixth Ward—Clerk, Verner Dryden; Sheriff, Jeff Holliday; Judges, James Daubert and How Carr. Place of registration, Reuben Haney's residence.

The registration days will be November 14th and 15th.

Council then adjourned.

Labadie Rowed.
Those persons who enjoy theatrical entertainments of the higher class will on a rare treat at Washington Opera-house to-morrow night.

That noble drama "Ingomar" will be presented by the famous Labadie-Rowell Company of talented artists—Francis Labadie as Ingomar and Miss Hattie Rowell in the role of Parthenia.

The Washington (Pa.) Observer says: Mr. Francis Labadie as Ingomar, made a fine impression as he grew in favor from the start to the last. He is strong in tragedy and his facial expression is something attractive. Miss Hattie Rowell as Parthenia supported Mr. Labadie ably.

Her personation of the sweet Greek girl that which appeals to her audience strongly.

The rest of the company gave good support to the leading parts.

Sets now on sale at Nelson's. Prices, Gallery 50c, Balcony 35c, Dress Circle 50c, Parquet 75c.

AMONG THE RAILROADS

THE STEEL HIGHWAYS THAT LEAD TO AND FROM MAYSVILLE.

Items of the Rail That Are Stoked Up and Piled Into The Ledger's Columns by a Thoroughly Competent Engineer.

W. W. Wilcox, the accommodating ticket agent at the C. and O. Depot, will please accept our thanks for favors.

C. B. Ryan, Assistant General Passenger Agent of the C. and O., has returned to Cincinnati from an Eastern trip.

The F. F. V. Wednesday carried six couples, one each from Huntington, Ashland, Russell, Portsmouth, Stone City and Maysville.

The number of passengers carried by the L. and N. this year was 6,136,650, an increase over the number carried last year of 550,037, or about 10 per cent.

M. E. Ingalls, President of the Big Four and Chesapeake and Ohio systems, who has been at the Hot Springs, Va., with his family for the summer, will return to headquarters to-morrow.

At their hall at 32 West Fourth street, Cincinnati, last evening, the Queen City Railroad Clerks' Association gave their first complimentary musical and literary entertainment of the winter series.

A good crowd of the railroad boys and their friends were present.

On account of the meeting of the October 11th the C. and O. will sell tickets from Maysville to that place on certificate plan to delegates $1.75 for the round trip. Tickets on sale October 10th and 11th.

The L. and N. now operates 1,791 miles of road. The capital stock is now $55,000,000. The general results for the year show as follows: Gross earnings, $21,235,721.55; operating expenses, $4,950,000; net earnings, $16,285,721.55.

On account of the meeting of the October 11th the C. and O. will sell tickets from Maysville to that place on certificate plan to delegates $1.75 for the round trip. Tickets on sale October 10th and 11th.

The L. and N. now operates 1,791 miles of road. The capital stock is now $55,000,000. The general results for the year show as follows: Gross earnings, $21,235,721.55; operating expenses, $4,950,000; net earnings, $16,285,721.55.

On account of the meeting of the October 11th the C. and O. will sell tickets from Maysville to that place on certificate plan to delegates $1.75 for the round trip. Tickets on sale October 10th and 11th.

The L. and N. now operates 1,791 miles of road. The capital stock is now $55,000,000. The general results for the year show as follows: Gross earnings, $21,235,721.55; operating expenses, $4,950,000; net earnings, $16,285,721.55.

On account of the meeting of the October 11th the C. and O. will sell tickets from Maysville to that place on certificate plan to delegates $1.75 for the round trip. Tickets on sale October 10th and 11th.

The L. and N. now operates 1,791 miles of road. The capital stock is now $55,000,000. The general results for the year show as follows: Gross earnings, $21,235,721.55; operating expenses, $4,950,000; net earnings, $16,285,721.55.

On account of the meeting of the October 11th the C. and O. will sell tickets from Maysville to that place on certificate plan to delegates $1.75 for the round trip. Tickets on sale October 10th and 11th.

The L. and N. now operates 1,791 miles of road. The capital stock is now $55,000,000. The general results for the year show as follows: Gross earnings, $21,235,721.55; operating expenses, $4,950,000; net earnings, $16,285,721.55.

On account of the meeting of the October 11th the C. and O. will sell tickets from Maysville to that place on certificate plan to delegates $1.75 for the round trip. Tickets on sale October 10th and 11th.

The L. and N. now operates 1,791 miles of road. The capital stock is now $55,000,000. The general results for the year show as follows: Gross earnings, $21,235,721.55; operating expenses, $4,950,000; net earnings, $16,285,721.55.

On account of the meeting of the October 11th the C. and O. will sell tickets from Maysville to that place on certificate plan to delegates $1.75 for the round trip. Tickets on sale October 10th and 11th.

The L. and N. now operates 1,791 miles of road. The capital stock is now $55,000,000. The general results for the year show as follows: Gross earnings, $21,235,721.55; operating expenses, $4,950,000; net earnings, $16,285,721.55.

On account of the meeting of the October 11th the C. and O. will sell tickets from Maysville to that place on certificate plan to delegates $1.75 for the round trip. Tickets on sale October 10th and 11th.

The L. and N. now operates 1,791 miles of road. The capital stock is now $55,000,000. The general results for the year show as follows: Gross earnings, $21,235,721.55; operating expenses, $4,950,000; net earnings, $16,285,721.55.

On account of the meeting of the October 11th the C. and O. will sell tickets from Maysville to that place on certificate plan to delegates $1.75 for the round trip. Tickets on sale October 10th and 11th.

The L. and N. now operates 1,791 miles of road. The capital stock is now $55,000,000. The general results for the year show as follows: Gross earnings, $21,235,721.55; operating expenses, $4,950,000; net earnings, $16,285,721.55.

On account of the meeting of the October 11th the C. and O. will sell tickets from Maysville to that place on certificate plan to delegates $1.75 for the round trip. Tickets on sale October 10th and 11th.

NEATLY CAUGHT

The Wife of President Griffiths Stands Guard, While Her Husband Robs the Safe of the Anchor Manufacturing Co.

A Detective Springs From His Hiding Place and Confronts the President in the Act—Griffiths Admits His Guilt, and is Placed in Jail.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 7.—For several months John Fogarty, Jr., treasurer of the Anchor Manufacturing Co., has suspected John A. Griffiths, the president of the concern, of crooked work, and Detective Harris was employed to catch him "dead to rights".

From an outside place of hiding the officer had on several occasions noticed Griffiths enter the office and emerge shortly afterward. These visits were usually made late at night. Thursday night the officer was stationed in a secluded recess near the stairs, where they held a whispered conversation. Mrs. Griffiths then walked to a window at the front of the office and anxiously gazed out.

The officer, who was watching the building, in the meantime Griffiths had opened the safe and taken out of it some of the cash, which he had taken from a drawer in a desk near by. He was quite nervous, and at intervals looked around in a suspicious manner to see that his wife was still at her post. He finally recognized the officer and beckoned his wife to come near the safe.

Detective Harris could not understand the meaning of the signs as they spoke in whispers. He observed Griffiths hand his wife some papers. These she placed in her pocket, while the husband looked at the officer and made the detective believe the tumbler of the lock which he sprang forward and caught Griffiths by the neck.

The officer, who was watching the building, in the meantime Griffiths had opened the safe and taken out of it some of the cash, which he had taken from a drawer in a desk near by. He was quite nervous, and at intervals looked around in a suspicious manner to see that his wife was still at her post. He finally recognized the officer and beckoned his wife to come near the safe.

Detective Harris could not understand the meaning of the signs as they spoke in whispers. He observed Griffiths hand his wife some papers. These she placed in her pocket, while the husband looked at the officer and made the detective believe the tumbler of the lock which he sprang forward and caught Griffiths by the neck.

The officer, who was watching the building, in the meantime Griffiths had opened the safe and taken out of it some of the cash, which he had taken from a drawer in a desk near by. He was quite nervous, and at intervals looked around in a suspicious manner to see that his wife was still at her post. He finally recognized the officer and beckoned his wife to come near the safe.

Detective Harris could not understand the meaning of the signs as they spoke in whispers. He observed Griffiths hand his wife some papers. These she placed in her pocket, while the husband looked at the officer and made the detective believe the tumbler of the lock which he sprang forward and caught Griffiths by the neck.

The officer, who was watching the building, in the meantime Griffiths had opened the safe and taken out of it some of the cash, which he had taken from a drawer in a desk near by. He was quite nervous, and at intervals looked around in a suspicious manner to see that his wife was still at her post. He finally recognized the officer and beckoned his wife to come near the safe.

Detective Harris could not understand the meaning of the signs as they spoke in whispers. He observed Griffiths hand his wife some papers. These she placed in her pocket, while the husband looked at the officer and made the detective believe the tumbler of the lock which he sprang forward and caught Griffiths by the neck.

The officer, who was watching the building, in the meantime Griffiths had opened the safe and taken out of it some of the cash, which he had taken from a drawer in a desk near by. He was quite nervous, and at intervals looked around in a suspicious manner to see that his wife was still at her post. He finally recognized the officer and beckoned his wife to come near the safe.

Detective Harris could not understand the meaning of the signs as they spoke in whispers. He observed Griffiths hand his wife some papers. These she placed in her pocket, while the husband looked at the officer and made the detective believe the tumbler of the lock which he sprang forward and caught Griffiths by the neck.

The officer, who was watching the building, in the meantime Griffiths had opened the safe and taken out of it some of the cash, which he had taken from a drawer in a desk near by. He was quite nervous, and at intervals looked around in a suspicious manner to see that his wife was still at her post. He finally recognized the officer and beckoned his wife to come near the safe.

Detective Harris could not understand the meaning of the signs as they spoke in whispers. He observed Griffiths hand his wife some papers. These she placed in her pocket, while the husband looked at the officer and made the detective believe the tumbler of the lock which he sprang forward and caught Griffiths by the neck.

The officer, who was watching the building, in the meantime Griffiths had opened the safe and taken out of it some of the cash, which he had taken from a drawer in a desk near by. He was quite nervous, and at intervals looked around in a suspicious manner to see that his wife was still at her post. He finally recognized the officer and beckoned his wife to come near the safe.

Detective Harris could not understand the meaning of the signs as they spoke in whispers. He observed Griffiths hand his wife some papers. These she placed in her pocket, while the husband looked at the officer and made the detective believe the tumbler of the lock which he sprang forward and caught Griffiths by the neck.

The officer, who was watching the building, in the meantime Griffiths had opened the safe and taken out of it some of the cash, which he had taken from a drawer in a desk near by. He was quite nervous, and at intervals looked around in a suspicious manner to see that his wife was still at her post. He finally recognized the officer and beckoned his wife to come near the safe.

Detective Harris could not understand the meaning of the signs as they spoke in whispers. He observed Griffiths hand his wife some papers. These she placed in her pocket, while the husband looked at the officer and made the detective believe the tumbler of the lock which he sprang forward and caught Griffiths by the neck.

The officer, who was watching the building, in the meantime Griffiths had opened the safe and taken out of it some of the cash, which he had taken from a drawer in a desk near by. He was quite nervous, and at intervals looked around in a suspicious manner to see that his wife was still at her post. He finally recognized the officer and beckoned his wife to come near the safe.

Detective Harris could not understand the meaning of the signs as they spoke in whispers. He observed Griffiths hand his wife some papers. These she placed in her pocket, while the husband looked at the officer and made the detective believe the tumbler of the lock which he sprang forward and caught Griffiths by the neck.

The officer, who was watching the building, in the meantime Griffiths had opened the safe and taken out of it some of the cash, which he had taken from a drawer in a desk near by. He was quite nervous, and at intervals looked around in a suspicious manner to see that his wife was still at her post. He finally recognized the officer and beckoned his wife to come near the safe.

Detective Harris could not understand the meaning of the signs as they spoke in whispers. He observed Griffiths hand his wife some papers. These she placed in her pocket, while the husband looked at the officer and made the detective believe the tumbler of the lock which he sprang forward and caught Griffiths by the neck.

The officer, who was watching the building, in the meantime Griffiths had opened the safe and taken out of it some of the cash, which he had taken from a drawer in a desk near by. He was quite nervous, and at intervals looked around in a suspicious manner to see that his wife was still at her post. He finally recognized the officer and beckoned his wife to come near the safe.

Detective Harris could not understand the meaning of the signs as they spoke in whispers. He observed Griffiths hand his wife some papers. These she placed in her pocket, while the husband looked at the officer and made the detective believe the tumbler of the lock which he sprang forward and caught Griffiths by the neck.

The officer, who was watching the building, in the meantime Griffiths had opened the safe and taken out of it some of the cash, which he had taken from a drawer in a desk near by. He was quite nervous, and at intervals looked around in a suspicious manner to see that his wife was still at her post. He finally recognized the officer and beckoned his wife to come near the safe.

Detective Harris could not understand the meaning of the signs as they spoke in whispers. He observed Griffiths hand his wife some papers. These she placed in her pocket, while the husband looked at the officer and made the detective believe the tumbler of the lock which he sprang forward and caught Griffiths by the neck.

YESTERDAY'S LEDGER

Was a good paper, and it will continue to be a good paper throughout the year. It will give you all the news every day, and at the low price of 25 cents a month, either by carrier or by mail. Not is the time to subscribe.

There have been few better or more thoroughly enjoyable entertainments of the burlesque class seen here than that presented at Washington Opera-house on Monday evening last. The bill for the evening was a very capable actors and a bevy of half a dozen as pretty and graceful girls as are ordinarily seen behind the footlights.

Henshaw is brimful of fun and his songs, witty remarks, clever dancing and goods looks kept everybody in rare good humor. His song, "Across the Bridge" was especially well received. He has a good partner in Miss Tom Brooks, a young woman, who can sing, dance and is full of over-throwing humor and ready wit. There were some fine quartette singing and merry choruses.

This excellent company will return to Cincinnati Opera-house next Monday evening, October 10th, and should be greeted by a crowded house.

Sets now on sale at Nelson's. Prices 25c, 35c, 50c and 75c.

CHAMBERLAIN'S Cough Remedy, famous for its cures of colds and as a preventive and cure for Croup, 50 cents per bottle.

Chamberlain's Pain Balm, a general family liniment and especially valuable for rheumatism, sprains, bruises, burns and frostbite, 50 cents per bottle.

We sell Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Chronic Colic, the most successful medicine in use for dysentery, diarrhoea, colic and cholera morbus, 25 and 50 cent bottles

